

Autumn Colloquium

Celebrating the 40th Anniversary of the Publication of Jacques Le Goff's Medieval Civilisation: 400-1500

Saturday 20 November 2004

The Wolfson Room, Institute of Historical Research,
Malet Street, London

10.30 Coffee and Registration

11.00 Introduction: Miri Rubin (Queen Mary College, London)

Peoples and Places

11.30 John Arnold (Birkbeck College, London): 'Lay Belief and Unbelief'

12.15 Tom Williamson (University of East Anglia): 'Woodland and Champion: Exploring Regional Variation in the Medieval Landscape'

1.00 Lunch (please bring your own lunch)

Ideas and Emotions

2.00-2.45 Brigitte Resl (Goldsmith's College, London): Title Pending

2.45-3.30 Sophie Page (University College, London): Title Pending

3.30-4.00 Tea

4.00 Roundtable Discussion: Michael Clanchy, Matthew Innes (Birkbeck College, London), Rita Copeland (University of Pennsylvania), Paul Binski (Gonville and Caius, Cambridge), David d'Avray (University College, London)

The colloquium is free to members of the London Medieval Society (new members are always welcome). The cost for non-members is £8 (£5 concessions). NO BOOKING NECESSARY. Registration will take place on the day. Membership is annual £15 (£8 concessions). The next colloquium, on 'Animals and Birds: Natural and Supernatural', will be on Saturday, 26 February 2005. Details: Colloquium Secretary, Gopa Roy, groy@britishlibrary.net. Membership inquiries: Alison Wiggins (co-secretary) a.e.wiggins@qmul.ac.uk. Website: www.the-lms.org